Two Years in the Making...

Atlanta, GA- June 10, 2009

Graham Marsh, musician, producer, and engineer chooses Avastor hard disk drives.

Graham Marsh has worked with such greats as Lionel Richie, Natalie Cole, Nas, Kelis, Ludacris, Gnarl Barkley and Cee-Lo Green. For the last two years he has been in the studio with Cee-Lo Green recording his new solo album titled "Lady Killer" which is due out at the end of September, 2010. They have spent most of their time in Cee-Lo's personal Atlanta based studio, Solitaire, as well as Glenwood Place and Nightbird Studios in Los Angeles.

In these two years they have also recorded "What Part of Forever" which is on the new Eclipse Soundtrack (Twilight Saga), "Language of Love" off the Sex and The City 2 soundtrack, and Gnarl Barkley's "Going On" for Puma's "Love Equals Football" World Cup campaign.

What has made Graham choose Avastor for major projects such as these? "Speed, reliability and design are very important features. We do a lot of traveling so we need to use a drive that will perform well and will last. That is why I choose the Avastor HDX and PDX Series for all my projects," stated Graham Marsh.
