AVID Approves Avastor HDX Hard Disk Drives for Pro Tools 9 Systems

Avastor is proud to announce the approval, by AVID of the Avastor HDX series of external disk drives for use with Pro Tools 9.0. Avastor President, Steve Smith comments "We put extra time and testing into each HDX we ship to insure they meet the demands of Pro Tool users. But when Avid qualifies and approves your product after stringent in-house testing it is gratifying to know the extra work pays off."

Pro Tool users have made Avastor the "Go-To" drive in recording studios around the world. Recording pros know when system compatibility, performance, reliability, and the confidence that you are capturing all the data, the choice is the Avastor HDX Hard disk drive.
